

Summary:

Technical development, in All The field of life gas a very important, like the role of Computer in the development of Critical thinking and to strung then the relation between the human mind of students and artificial mind of the computer and growing the students skill of critical thinking in that it help the students of Art Education to link the new old information through the using of chronological order for increasing memory.