

Summary:

The fact that exaggeration is one of the most dangerous destructive ideas that threaten the reality of the Islamic nation in various aspects. The destructive intellectual danger is an integral part of the policy and its destruction. The ideas of the Arab Islamic state and found a solid ground of rulers who stood against the orientations of the Prophet (PBUH) and against his family (peace be upon them) and their followers and the abundance of these extremists cover the spread and the rejection of Islamic thought and blow up the Islamic faith, but the people of the House stood up courageously Against this phenomenon and resist it For what they have of thought and sound mind and in a solid manner.

Certainly, the Qur'anic verses that were revealed in more than one site confirmed that this phenomenon existed in antiquity among the Jews, Christians and Christians through the blessed verses that were revealed, which will be mentioned in the special section of the Holy Quran, where Christians and Jews claimed to their prophets the attributes of divinity, The son of Mary is God, and the Qur'an warned Muslims not to fall into the same mistake and problem, but it happened and spread this phenomenon with Islam.
