Abstract

Praise be to Allah, the Lord of the Worlds, and prayers and peace be upon the most honorable of all creatures, Abi Al-Qasim Muhammad (PBUH), and on his good and pure house. The topic of Hajj is one of the important topics in Islamic history because it is a rite required by the command of Allah Almighty and with clear confirmation in most of the Quranic verses as well as the noble prophetic traditions that dealt with this ritual in detail. However, this ritual is one of the most important religious duties imposed by God on Muslims Under special conditions. Hajj is the legislation of God is not free legislation of the rule and the objectives and benefits of the whole is a forum for all peoples and tribes in all forms and colors and worship without distinction between one sect or another. Where God Almighty said: "And the people in the Hajj, they will bring you men, and to every man who comes from every deep abyss, 27 to witness the benefits of them". Moreover, the Hajj is not only an act of worship, but also the most important of the divine rituals which God has bestowed upon the Islamic nation, especially among other nations. The people of the House (peace be upon them) have an important role in urging Hajj and establishing its legislation and laws to their supporters until they reach People regularly. However, the interest was not only in the religious aspect but also in the political aspect because the Islamic nation was subjected to constant threats threatening its people. It was the duty of the people of the House of Peace to address this task by employing the Hajj season politically, economically and socially. The school of Ahl al-Bayt (peace be upon them) was distinguished in its view of Hajj and its rituals with advantages that gave the Hajj a special guarantee and a distinctive form that emphasizes the extent of the political and moral dimension of their pilgrimage to others. According to these data, it was with the help of God to choose the subject to show the impact of jihad and worship of the people of the House of peace be upon them to employ this rite. The research section is divided into three sections with the preamble, including the preamble: the employment of Hajj at the time of the Prophet (pbuh) to spread the provisions of his religion in the era of Makkah, and we dealt in the first topic: the association of the imams peace be upon them pilgrimage and urging it. The third topic included the employment of imams for the Hajj in reporting political positions. Finally, I hope from God Almighty that I have accomplished this study, so it is better than Allaah and if I sin, I will be diligent in that. It is God's success.
